NOTES

This wine is exhibiting the intensity of fruit, which is a hallmark of the 2007 vintage in Margaret River. On the nose aromas of stone fruits, particularly peach are mixed with marmalade, cashew nuts, toasted bread, perfumed French oak and some complexity from malolactic fermentation. Peach is the main theme on the palate with great acid support and a very long finish.

COLOUR

Light straw

NOSE

Stone fruits, peach, marmalade, cashew nuts, perfumed French oak, toasted bread with some malolactic fermentation notes.

PALATE

Peach, great strength of acid, balance and length.

CUISINE

This oaked Chardonnay will pair well with poultry, pork, veal, salmon, crayfish and creamy sauces.
